"They were youths
who believed in their Lord,
and We advanced them in guidance:
We gave strength to their hearts:
Behold, they stood up and said:
"Our Lord is the Lord of the heavens and of the earth: never shall we call upon any god other than Him:
if we did, we should indeed have uttered an enormity!"

Islamic History and youth

History is witness to the fact that every revolution had the involvement of youth at its epicenter. The youth have played a major role in every era of the Islamic history as well. Prophet Ibrahim(AS) was a youngster when he preached the 'oneness of GOD' to his father and his people. On the one hand when Prophet Yusuf(AS) protected his youthful honor from being maligned, on the other hand he also spread the true religion to his co prisoners and held the reins of his nation at a very young age. People who accepted the message of Prophet Moses (AS) were mostly the youth. When settling the dispute over placing the 'Hajr-e-Aswad' at the holy Kaba' and participating in 'Halful-Fazool' Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) was young. Most of the people who embraced Islam at the very outset of Prophet hood were youngsters. Musab-bin-Umair(RA) was a youngster when he was sent to Madina as a teacher for preaching Islam. At the time of Prophet (PBUH) migrating to Madina, the young Hazrath Ali (RA) was made the trustee to take care of people's belongings. 20 year old Maaz-bin-Jabal(RA) was sent to Yemen as a governor. 19 year old Hazrath Osaama-bin-Zaid(RA) commanded an army of 3000 soldiers. Hazrath Imam Gazali began preaching at the age of 28. Moulana Moududi had already published the book 'Aljihad-Fil-Islam' at the age of 24. Islamic history has a record of innumerable such personalities.

O' Dear Youth

Allah (swt) has blessed you with the invaluable gift of youthfulness and you are very well aware that the revolution one can bring about in his youthfulness is impossible to achieve during childhood or at old age...

Allah (swt) has called the stage of youthfulness by the name of 'Strength' in chapter 'Rome' of Quran.

Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) has advised to value young age over old age.

O' Dear Friends

On the one hand when youthfulness is an invaluable gift from Allah (swt), it is also some thing that Allah has entrusted us with for which we are accountable....

On the Day of Judgment, no one will be allowed to move from his place until he answers five questions....

The second among them would be 'How did you spend your youth'?

On the Day of Judgment when every soul would be sweating profusely, one among the seven people that Allah shall take under his shelter will be the young who had spent his youth in seeking the pleasure of Allah.

Today, India is a place where...

- Majority are afflicted with poverty
- Oppression, Injustice, mischief, violence and riots are rampant.
- Youth are being used to promote indecency, vulgarity and obscenity.
- Illiteracy, class discrimination, violation of rights and environmental destruction is common place.

In the absence of youth

- Building of Nation and Community is Impossible
- Shaping of an Ideal Society is Impossible
- Service to Humanity and prevailing of Peace is Impossible

Youth of Today

- Is living a life without purpose
- Is overawed by the outward pomp and splendor
